We're Lucky to Have You Here

Historic Oaks has been granted a bit o' luck—with warm, friendly residents like you. Our good fortune probably makes other properties green with envy! We want you to know that we genuinely care and appreciate you. By continuing to provide the quality service you deserve, we hope to keep both luck and you on our side!

Do Know Your A-B-ZZZs?

Celebrate "National Sleep Awareness Week" all month long! Don't hinder the sleep of others with slamming doors, loud televisions or booming radios. Your neighbors will appreciate your thoughtfulness and who knows...you may even improve your own sleep patterns!

Drive Cautiously

Now that spring is here, more of your neighbors will be outside walking, jogging or just enjoying the fresh air. When driving through the community, we ask that you slow down and help stop accidents before they happen.

Looking for a Bit O' the Green?

Are your friends green with envy because you have a great place to live and they don't? Do them—and yourself—a favor this St. Patrick's Day and refer them to us! If you know someone who is looking for a great new place to call home, tell them about the great lifestyle you've discovered at Historic Oaks! When they come in and sign a lease, we'll show our appreciation by thanking you with a special Referral Bonus! See the Office for details.

March Right In!

Take a look around as spring emerges. The weather makes it easy to see all the benefits that brought you to Historic Oaks in the first place. If your lease expires this month and you'd like to renew, just call the Office. We'll be happy to make renewing an easy experience by preparing all the necessary paperwork for you. All you have to do is march into the Office and sign your name!

Community Service Requirements: HUD

In 1998, Congress passed a law that requires adults living in public housing developments to spend eight (8) hours a month performing community service or participating in an economic self-sufficiency program. Certain adults are exempt from this requirement. They are:

- The elderly (those 62 or older).
- The disabled who are unable to comply with the requirement as well as the primary caretakers of these persons.
- Individuals that are working (minimum 30 hours per week.)
- Full Time Students.
- Individuals receiving assistance and in compliance with state or TANF requirements.
- Members of Resident Council.

NOTE: Failure to meet this agreement is a lease violation and may be cause for lease termination.

Calm your fears about airline travel

Flying may be the safest way to travel, but getting on an airplane still makes many people nervous. If you're one of them, remember these basic tips for ensuring a calm, safe flight:

▪ Fly nonstop when possible. Crashes and accidents are rare, but they're most likely to occur during takeoffs and landings. Look for nonstop flights (remember that direct flights aren't necessarily nonstop, even though you may not change planes).

▪ Keep your seatbelt fastened. Yeah, you know this already, but it's still important advice. Sudden turbulence can cause an injury, even when you're sitting in your seat, if you're not buckled in.

▪ Know your exits. If you have to evacuate quickly (and evacuations, along with the deployment of emergency oxygen, are the most common emergency situations you're likely to encounter, although most of the time they're preventative measures), you don't want to waste time. Knowing the location of the nearest exit is an excellent precaution.

▪ Keep your children safe. When traveling with a baby or toddler, a child restraint system like a car seat is a must. Check the labels to make sure it's certified for use on aircraft.

Measure the width of your car seat before boarding: If it's 16 inches or less, it should fit into any airline seat.

▪ Don't obsess over finding the safest seat. Though you may want to be closest to the emergency exit, the fact is that no one seat is safer than any other on an airplane. For example, in some emergencies passengers are better off remaining in their seats—wherever they are—than trying to scramble off the plane.

Looking to marry? Grow a beard.

Male beards have been in and out of style for centuries. But do beards send any signal to potential mates? Yes, say researchers in Australia.

University of Queensland researchers gathered more than 8,500 women and divided them into three groups. Each group saw pictures of the same men, whose photos were manipulated to show faces clean-shaved, with light stubble, with heavy stubble, and fully bearded.

The study, published in the Journal of Evolutionary Biology, found that women rated men with heavy stubble as sexiest. Men with short stubble were rated the best for a short-term fling. But, while men with full beards were not rated high on the sexiest scale, they won the day as candidates for marriage and family. Researchers said participants rated men with full beards as older, more masculine, generous, sincere, and hard-working.

Even fashionistas can be frugal

Like it or not, your appearance plays a role in your success. But it's tough to build a power wardrobe when you're on a budget. Try these suggestions:

- Go goth. Well, not exactly goth, but definitely dark. If you buy staples—pants, skirts, jackets—in darker, neutral colors, you can get away with wearing those garments more often.
- Think value. Emphasize long-term value over short-term costs. Buying cheaper shoes and clothing may seem like a good idea, but you could end up paying more if you have to replace them sooner. Instead, choose the best quality you can afford.
- Be thrifty. Don't limit your shopping excursions to pricier department stores. Many consignment shops sell top-quality apparel and designer fashions in near-new condition for a fraction of the retail price.
- Shop seasonally. Buy clothes at the end of the season after prices have been slashed. Then save them to wear the following year.
- Steam clean. Purchase a steamer to help offset the cost of frequent dry-cleaning.

ONWARD Two teenage elf brothers, Ian and Barley Lightfoot (Tom Holland and Chris Pratt), go on a journey to discover if there is still a little magic left out there in order to spend one last day with their father, who died when they were too young to remember him.

THE WAY BACK A former high school basketball phenomenon (Ben Affleck), struggling with alcoholism, is offered a coaching job at his alma mater. As the team starts to win, he may have a reason to confront his old demons. But will it be enough to set him on the road to redemption?

MY SPY JJ (Dave Bautista), a demoted CIA operative, finds himself at the mercy of a precocious 9-year-old girl, named Sophie (Chloe Coleman) where he has been sent undercover begrudgingly to surveil her family. When Sophie discovers hidden cameras in her apartment she uses her tech savviness to locate where the surveillance operation is set. In exchange for not blowing JJ's cover Sophie convinces him to spend time with her and teach her to be a spy. Despite his reluctance JJ finds he is no match for Sophie's disarming charm and wit.

MULAN When the Emperor of China issues a decree that one man per family must serve in the Imperial Army to defend the country from Northern invaders, Hua Mulan (Yifei Liu), the eldest daughter of an honored warrior, steps in to take the place of her ailing father.

Masquerading as a man, Hua Jun, she is tested every step of the way and must harness her inner-strength and embrace her true potential. It is an epic journey that will transform her into an honored warrior and earn her the respect of a grateful nation...and a proud father.

SOMETIMES ALWAYS NEVER Alan (Bill Nighy) is a stylish tailor with moves as sharp as his suits. He has spent years searching tirelessly for his missing son Michael who stormed out over a game of Scrabble. With a body to identify and his family torn apart, Alan must repair the relationship with his youngest son Peter and solve the mystery of an online player who he thinks could be Michael, so he can finally move on and reunite his family.

A QUIET PLACE II Following the deadly events at home, the Abbott family (Emily Blunt, Millicent Simmonds, Noah Jupe) must now face the terrors of the outside world as they continue their fight for survival in silence. Forced to venture into the unknown, they quickly realize that the creatures that hunt by sound are not the only threats that lurk beyond the sand path.

THE ROADS NOT TAKEN The film follows a day in the life of Leo (Javier Bardem) and his daughter, Molly (Elle Fanning), as he floats through alternate lives he could have lived, leading Molly to wrestle with her own path as she considers her future.

EMPEROR Dayo Okeniyi portrays Shields Green who in 1859 escaped from a plantation and made a daring journey north where he met Frederick Douglass (Harry Lennix) and John Brown. With the opportunity to continue to freedom in Canada, Green instead chose to fight to end slavery. Also stars James Cromwell as American Abolitionist John Brown.

BLOODSHOT Vin Diesel stars as a soldier recently killed in action and brought back to life as the superhero Bloodshot. With an army of nanotechnology in his veins, he's an unstoppable force -- stronger than ever and able to heal instantly. But in controlling his body, the company has sway over his mind and memories, too. Now, Ray doesn't know what's real and what's not -- but he's on a mission to find out.
